Published by
THE JUNIOR CLASS
Momence Community High School
Momence, Illinois

DEDICATION

To Eva (Jewett) Beers, Mary (Haslett)
Brady, L. Emma Griffin, Eaton L. Haslett,
Sarah (McKinstry) Kelly, Ida (Smithyman)
Little and Clara Thompson, the living members of the Class of 1877, the Monesse is respectfully dedicated.

The Class of '77 is certainly a worthy model.

THE FOREWORD

Fifty years have passed since the first high school class was graduated in this community. The Class of 1877 has the distinction this year of celebrating their fiftieth anniversary. Consequently the Editorial Staff of the Monesse 1927 is anxious to honor the Class of 1877 in an appropriate manner. We have, therefore, given special recognition to the Class of 1877 in this volume.

The Monesse 1927, is the twenty-sixth year book that has been published by the high school students from Momence and the surrounding community. During the first nineteen years a new name was selected every year for the book. However, during the 1920-21 school year, the name "Monesse" was selected and this name has been used during the past seven years. The name is of Indian origin. According to both history and legend, Moness or Monesse, was the name of the old Indian chief from which the name Momence was derived. In other words the name Momence is only a modification of the name Monesse.

We hope that this Year Book will serve as a partial record of the 1926-27 school year. Every section of this book has been prepared in a spirit of loyalty and good will and insinuations of a malicious or personal nature have been avoided. We hope that you will enjoy the volume as a whole, both pictures and reading material.

The Monesse 1927 Staff.

In Memoriam

Patrick J. Cleary
1851                    1927

Patrick J. Cleary was a true friend of the Monee Community High School. He was a member of the Board of Education from the time the district was organized in 1919 until the time of his death. He was honored by his colleagues every year by being elected President of the Board. He also served as a member of the Board of Education of School District No. 42 during a period of thirty years. Mr. Cleary was one of the exceptional men of the community. He was fair in his decisions, faithful and conscientious in the performance of his duties and honest in all his dealings and transactions with his fellowmen.

"He has finished his work."

GIFTS.

IF I could wave a fairy wand,
And my ships were come back from the sea,
I would give these gifts to the teachers
Who are very dear to me.

I'd give to Mr. Munson
A model community school,
A library on Lincoln,
And law, order and rule.

A harmonious band
I'd give to Mr. Liljedahl,
A new test tube for Physics,
And a noiseless study hall.

I'd give to Mr. Liberty
A cane with a golden head,
Some "specs" on a great, long chain,
And a necktie made of red.

A dove-cote made for two
I'd give to Mr. Hungerford and his little wife,
A farm well stocked with fishes
So he'll be happy all his life.

I'd give to the coach our loyalty,
Here's to Mr. Moore!
And a football eleven
That would pile up every score.

I'd give to Miss Coontz a shady nook
By a rippling river's side;
A garden of flowers and a book,
And a Kentucky horse to ride.

I'd give to Miss Brown
A thousand dollar puzzle prize;
And in the reduction of binomial factors
Let her students in mathematics be wise.

I'd give to Miss Palmer when out of school
A couple of miles to hike;
A pair of roller skates
And a great big swimming pool.

I'd give to Miss Mauritzson a store of books,
A cup of coffee and an easy chair;
I'd let her indulge everywhere
In athletics and fresh air.

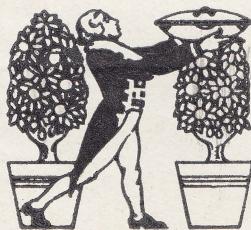

I'd give to Miss Stone a kitchen
Where contented she could bake,
To the joy of everybody
Sweet dainties, pudding, pie and cake.

I'd give to Miss Westfall a schoolroom
Where shorthand notes she may take,
And time-racing typewriters she may have,
And pupils wide awake.

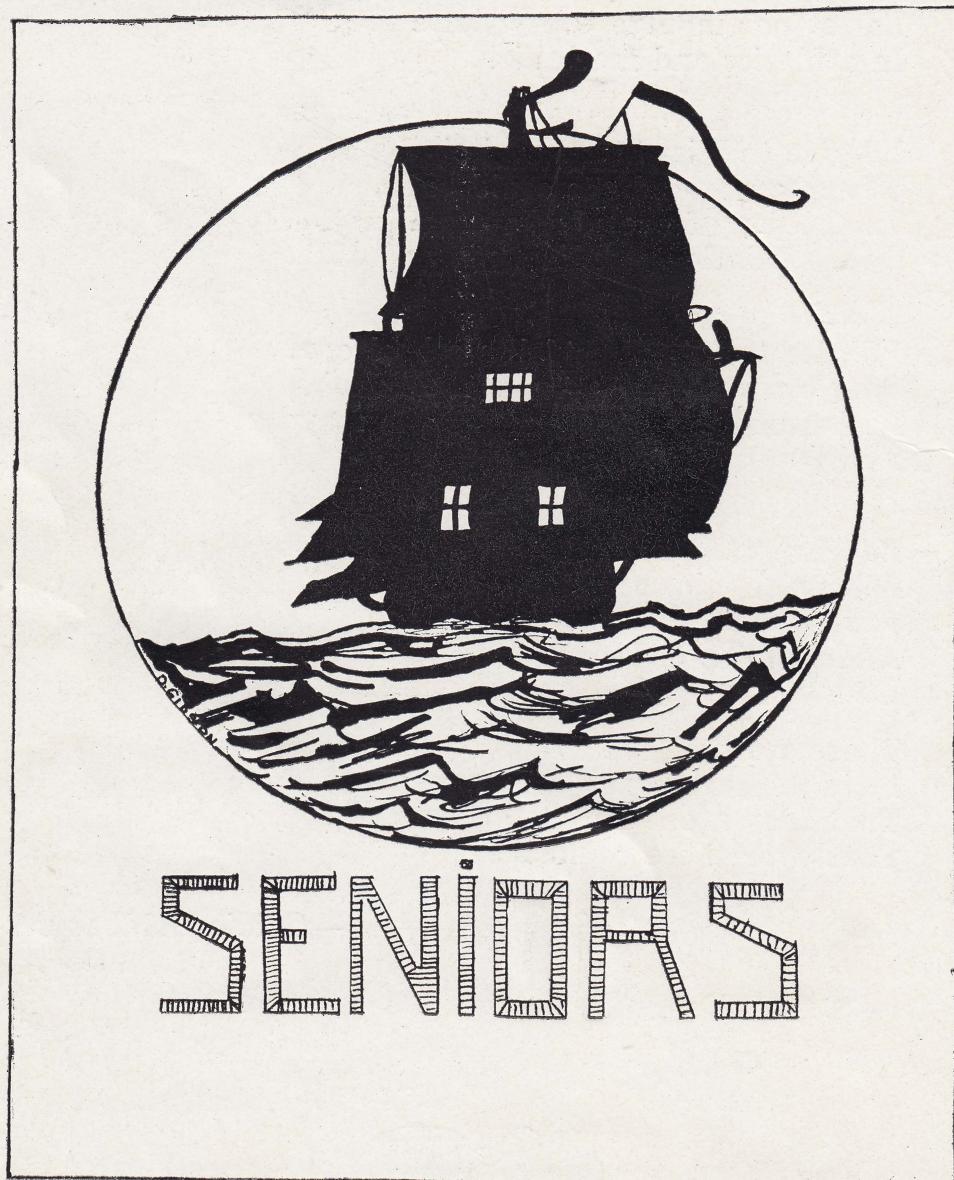

I'd give to Miss McNeil
A heroine with curls of gold,
A hero who's the sweetest thing,
And a villian fierce and bold.

These are the gifts I'd give them,
For I am sure that you'll agree
That they are the best teachers
That ever there could be!

—Goldie Goldberg.

Year Book Banquet

The Annual Year Book Banquet for the teachers and students of M. C. H. S. was served at the Woodman Hall on Saturday evening, February 26, at 6:30 o'clock. Places were reserved for 200 students and teachers. With the exception of three or four absented all places were taken. The banquet was nicely served by the W. R. C. and a three course menu proved to be a very delicious repast. The tables were tastefully decorated with red streamers and bouquets of red carnations, red and white being the high school colors. The programs which also served as place cards were novel in design and had been prepared by Miss Irene Hardy. The banquet is one of the annual social events for the high school students and is possibly enjoyed more than any other event on the school calendar.

After the banquet Mr. Liljedahl led in community singing and Miss Ethel Kramer played the accompaniment. Edward Murry, a member of the Senior Class, proved to be a very competent toastmaster and humorous responses were made by the following:

Sorrel Top Leadership	Maud Shrorts
Twentieth Century Curls	Ross Park
The Scribes	Helen Shrorts
Dollars and Cents	Harriet Searls
The Faculty	Goldie Goldberg
The Juniors	Thomas Kelson
The Seniors	Gaylord Wilson
The Green Eggs	William Hanson
The Wise Fools	Virgil Hall
The Football Season	Floyd Storer
The Basketball Season	John Lively
McNeil's Harmony	Orpha Park

Limited Activity	Miss Mauritzson
Dinner With School Ma'am	Mr. Moore
Lorenzo and Pink Ties	Miss Palmer
My Beat	Miss Brown
Why I Blush	Miss Westfall
My First Year	Mr. Hungerford
Major and Minor Scales	Miss McNeil
Remarks	Mr. Munson

This was the largest Year Book Banquet in the history of the schools and was pronounced by many as undoubtedly the most pleasant and enjoyable. After singing "We Are Loyal to You Momence High" everyone departed for home with the declaration that next year would find them again in attendance.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

"They sing like the radio."—Lawrence Austin

Senior Party

One sunny day the Senior Class of M. C. H. S. decided that they should be the first ones to hold a Class party, they being "upper classmen." It was decided to have it some evening at Six Mile Grove. They all met at the school house at approximately the same time and went in cars or "lizzies," such as Gilbert Hamann's. The lunch consisted of coffee, salad, sandwiches, doughnuts and hot dogs. Bernice Gibson made the coffee and it was not too strong. It was reported, not told, that a most enjoyable time was had by all. We will take it for granted that they did, but only the Seniors know the truth.

Junior Bob Party

The Juniors met at Reitz and Pittman's store and all piled into two sleds. It was decided by a unanimous vote to go to Grant Park and get something to eat. Raymond Mullady and Wayne Martin were already hungry. The two bobs started out and there were four teachers and twelve students in one bob. However, this was soon remedied as Mr. Moore suggested that it was not necessary for the boys and girls to go in separate bobs as this was a party to be enjoyed and not a Class in Commercial Geography.

As the party neared its destination, Janet Wimmer leaned over to one side of the bob a little too far. Bang! Over they went. Are they all safe? Yes, except Janet and Ramona. Janet accidentally sat on Ramona. After putting the bob right side up with Janet stationed in the middle, they proceeded to Grant Park. The crowd filed into Grant Park's one restaurant and everyone ate, drank and was merry.

On the way home everyone sang songs which were suggested and led by two of the teachers, Miss Palmer and Miss Brown. Everyone departed for their homes at a late hour declaring it was the best bob party they had ever attended.

Notice

Eloise McKinstry and Ralph Hertz want a Freshman party.

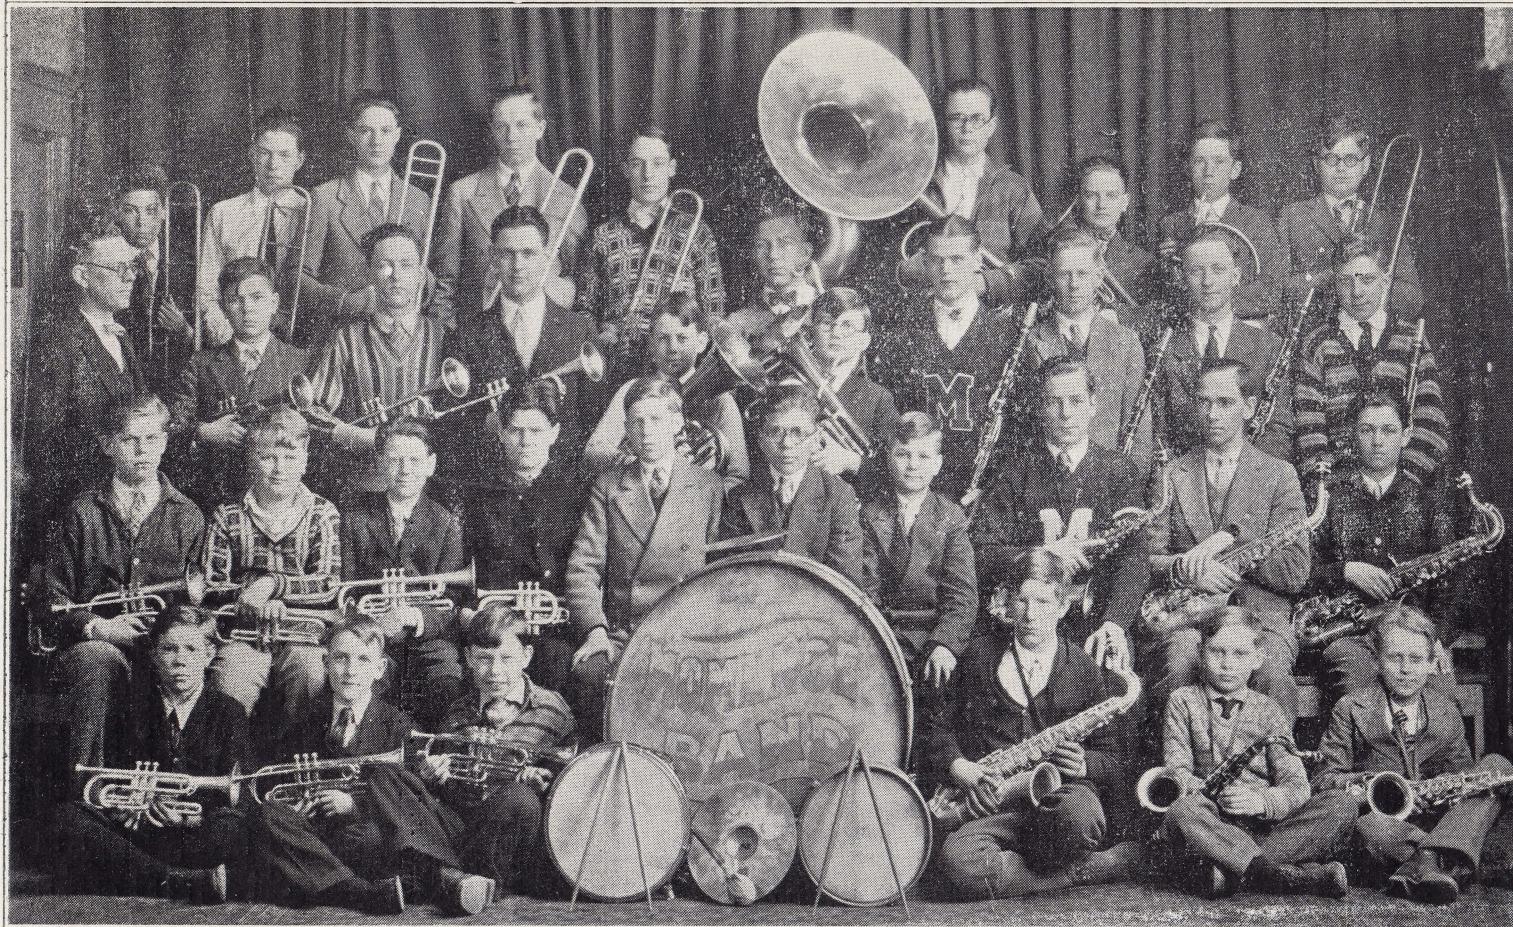

Glad. They are going to have it.

Sad. They cannot have it.

Mad. They're never going to have it.

Gad. The whole class is mad.

Cheer up, Eloise and Ralph, and patiently wait and see
What important Sophomores soon you will be,
And then, if Mr. Munson will allow
Two parties you'll have, and a big pow-wow!

THE MOMENCE COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL BAND

"Did you see us play in the Armory?"—Harold Liberty.

Senior Party

Again the Senior Class decided to exercise their social powers and hold another party. They decided to have a skating party this time. After supper they met at the usual place and journeyed over some bumpy roads which gave Hattie Kaylor indigestion for the rest of the evening. They went to the home of Edward Murry. Upon arriving no skates were produced. As each Senior was paying twenty-five cents they thought the skates were to be furnished with the rest of the party. A vote was taken as to what the course of entertainment should be. By a majority vote dancing was selected as the feature of the evening. Everybody was happy even if Jane Sergeant did go home with sore toes. A lunch was served consisting of coffee, pickles and sandwiches. The crowd adjourned at a very late hour, especially for little children like "Sonny Sherwood." Everyone said that they had had a very enjoyable time.

Sophomores Hold Post Mortem Over Never to be Had Party

William Hanson: "Mr. Munson, may the Sophomores have a party?"

Mr. Munson: "Why sure, Willie, but run along. I'm busy counting gray hairs so I can pull them out before I have my picture taken for the Year Book."

Willie to Lyeth Tabler: "Hurrah! Lyeth. We are to have our party."

Lyeth: "Fine, Bill. I wonder if Miss Stone will go with me. I'll go ask her now."

TWO DAYS LATER

Willie: "Mr. Munson, there's a basketball game at Peotone the same night as the party. May we postpone the party?"

Mr. Munson: "Well, I guess so."

Willie: "All right. Thanks."

THE NIGHT OF THE GAME

Willie: "This must be the place. I see a light in the gym over there. Let's go in."

Frank S.: "All right."

INSIDE THE GYM

Willie: "Why, this looks like the Grant Park Gym. Why, I believe it is. Let's stay. I have to be home early anyway to peddle my papers. There's a team too."

TWO WEEKS LATER

Willie: "Mr. Munson, may we have the Sophomore party now?"

Mr. Munson: "No! ! ! !"

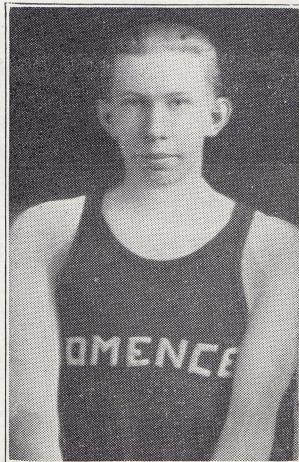

Editor's Note! The party finally became a reality. They met at the home of William Hanson on Friday evening, April 1. A very appropriate date.

"Next year I shall bring a girl to the Y. B. Banquet."—Allen Denny.

"Me for left guard."—Amos Regnier.

BASKET BALL

John Lively, Captain

Captain Lively has been a mainstay on our basketball teams during the past two years. John could always be depended upon to give his all during every moment of a contest. He certainly will be missed next year.

M. C. H. S. Girls' Athletic Association

Several high school girls under direction of Miss Palmer and Miss Mauritzson organized an association. The aims and ideals of this association are well stated in the outline given below. Read it. It is as follows:

1. Ice Skating—½ hour ..... 1 point
2. Roller Skating—½ hour ..... 1 point
3. Hiking—1 mile ..... 1 point
4. Not eating candy—1 week ..... 1 point
5. Drinking water (8 glasses per day)—1 week ..... 1 point
6. Basketball—1 week ..... 1 point
7. No powdering in school—1 week ..... 1 point
8. Horseback riding—½ hour ..... 1 point
9. Punctual attendance at basketball practice for year ..... 5 points

Remember girls, you are put on your honor for these credits, and it is for your own benefit that you earn them. Hiking and skating parties must consist of not less than three girls.

Jokes

FRESHMAN'S INTERPRETATION OF THE PSALM

Mr. Moore is my teacher, I shall not pass,
 He maketh me to show my ignorance before the class.
 He giveth me more than I can learn.
 He lowereth my grade.
 Yea, though I walk through the Valley of Knowledge, I know it not,
 He fireth questions at me in the presence of my class-mates.
 My eyes runneth over.
 Surely outlines and book reports shall follow me all the days of my life
 And I shall remain in English class forever.

Beautiful river, dear old stream,
 Old and wonderful, just like a dream.
 Now slowly, now swiftly rushing on,
 Ever the same from dark till dawn.
 The old Kankakee
 Often on thy banks do I roam,
 And watch the whirling waters foam,
 Often in thy water's home I swim,
 And many a contest have I won
 In the old Kankakee
 Just as the Indians long ago,
 I watch you flowing as I grow.
 Picked the white grapes that hung
 And from thy briared branches swung
 Across the old Kankakee
 Flowers and trees may bloom and die,
 The birds and leaves may close to fly.
 But the river may it ever flow
 For other youths who daily go
 To the old Kankakee

John Lively: "Whippet."

Lyeth Tabler: "The hen that sits on a china egg is better 'off.' "

Mrs. Hamann: "Hattie, you hardly eat anything here at our country home."

Hattie Kaylor: "I make a little go a long way."

Mrs. Gibson: "Doris, your hair is a fright. Did Thomas kiss you against your will?"

Doris Gibson: "He thinks he did."

Glenn Hess: "What makes Juanita Ford so shakey?"
Thomas Ross: "She's a flat tire."

Harold Hanlon: "I think associating with the better class of students is part of my education."

Orpha Park: "I was wondering why you hang around me so much."

Miss Coontz: "Why do some wear green, William?"

William Hanson: "So people can tell them from monkeys."

Vera Guertin: "What is the matter with Wayne Martin? I hear he's sick"

Lillian Torp: "He bought a score card for a basketball game and neither team scored."

Miss Palmer: "Why do so many Americans go to the Orient for their vacation?"

Nelse Christjansen: "They are tired of moonshine."

Henry Beaupre: "I wish I were big like Mr. Munson."

Darlene Klanska: "Why such a foolish wish?"

Henry Beaupre: "Then I could kick myself for being so small."

Lloyd Harwood: "The answer to problem nine is .23640 of an inch."

Miss Brown: "You are way off. It's an inch even."

Miss McNeil (in musical history class) "That b ~~s~~ is flat."
Gaylord Wilson: "That's all right. I have a pump in my car."

Glade Hardesty: "I'm sure glad I'm not a fish."
June McFadden: "Why?"
Glade Hardesty: "I would have to live in schools all my life."

Clifford Graves: "What makes your father's head so bald?"
Helen Shrorts: "That's because he thinks so hard."
Clifford Graves: "What makes your curly locks so thick?"
Helen Shrorts: "Oh, shut up."

Mr. Kramer: "Twenty years ago the girls didn't think of the things they do now."

Ione Kramer: "That's why they didn't do them."

George Flagler: "I wish I were like the river."
Ramona Mathewson: "What for, George?"
George Flagler: "So I could follow my course without leaving my bed."

Harry Nusbaum: "Whither, Paul, with the cane and tin cup?"
Paul Brown: "I've got a blind date and I'm going to make use of her."

Love beats its tattoo on every lover's pocketbook—Edward Murry.

Miss Palmer: "I guess Governor Winthrop had a hard time getting the Puritans to come to this country."

Maud Shrorts: "Yes. I hear even the bullets for the muskets had to be 'led.' "

Mr. Moore: "Name a collective noun, Fred."
Fred Jensen:—"Ash can."

Paul Tutewiler: "Did you ever see old monkeys grow on vines?"
Elmo Claywell: "No. Did you?"
Paul Tutewiler: "Sure, Gr—apes."

A dame is as strong as her weakest wink—Clarence Graves.

Mrs. Munson: "Irving, wake up."
Mr. Munson: "What?"
Mrs. Munson: "I just wanted to tell you you had two more hours to sleep."

Miss Westfall: "Won't you boys ever grow up?"
Duane Dunton: "Nope. Pa says I'm stunted."

Casey Canavan: "I love you, I love you. I want you for my own. Say what is your name?"

Mother, may I go out to swim
Across the English Channel?
Indulge, my child, but be sure
Your suit's not made of flannel.

Mr. Liljedahl: "First I'll take some sulphuric acid and then I'll take some chloroform."

Janet Wimmer: "That's a good idea."

Eloise McKinstry: "What make of hat do you like best?"
"Rusty" Parks: "I prefer 'Stetson'."

Gertrude Shrонтz: "I think our Hawaiian Sextette is perfectly beautiful."

Jane Sergeant: "So do I. Now let's improve the music."

Nita Weber: "Reginald, put me down so I can walk immediately."
Reginald Hardy: "I will not."

Nita Weber: "Why not?"

Reginald Hardy: "Didn't you hear the sermon, 'Every man should carry his cross without murmuring'?"

"Your name?" asked Miss Westfall, registering a new pupil.
"Brown."

And what's your first name?"

"Paul."

"Oh, haven't you got them wrong? I think Paul must be your first name and Brown your family name, isn't that right?"

A few days later

"Miss Westfall. Mother says Brown is my first name. She says I got that name when I was born and she didn't name me Paul till three months later."

Harold Porter: "I read a great deal about the Great American Desert."

Miss Palmer: "What is the Great American Desert?"

Harold Porter: "Why I believe that the Great American Dessert is prunes."

Nita Weber: "A man in Ohio sold his wife to a blind peddler for ten cents. Wasn't that awful?"

Duane Dunton: "It certainly was. Anybody who would stick a blind man is no good."

Virgil Sherwood: "My sister can drive nails like lightning."

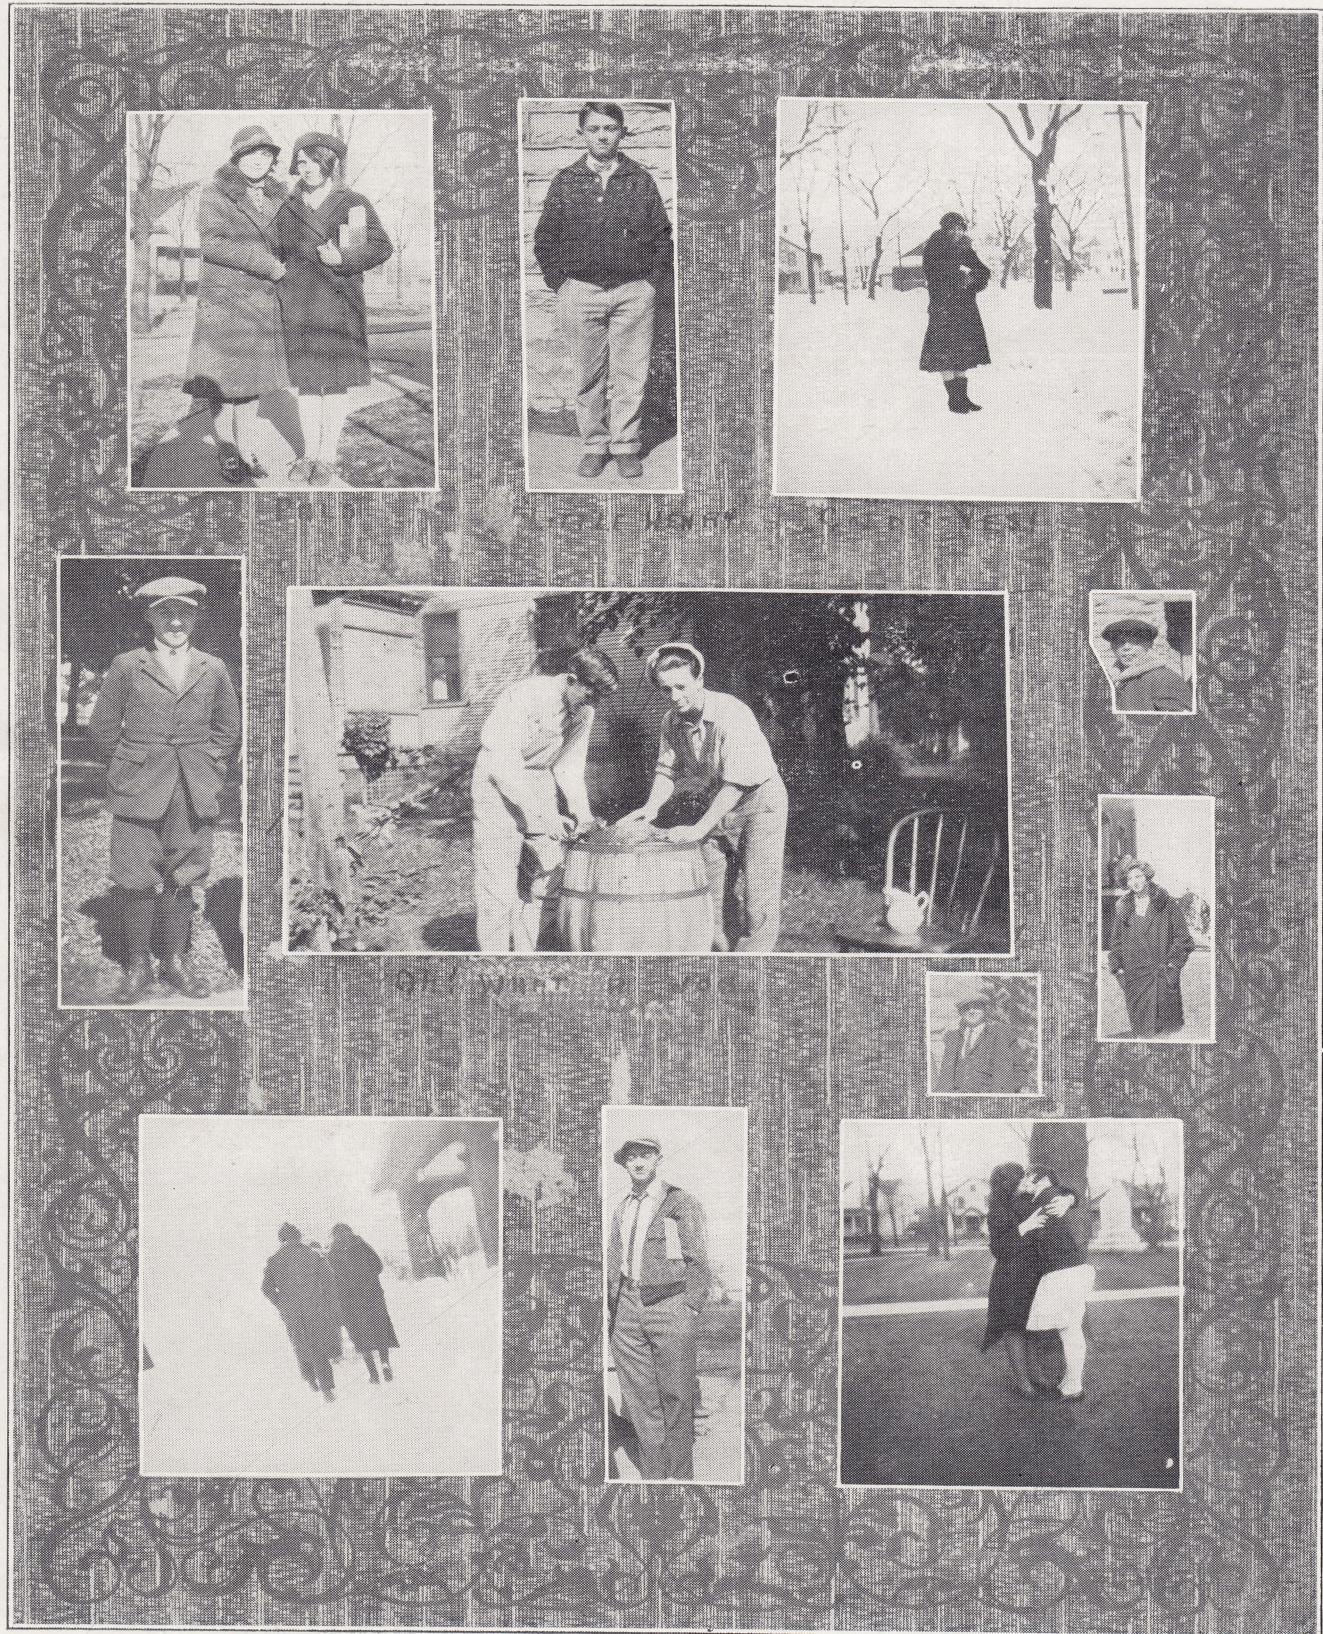

Nelse Christjansen: "You don't mean it."

Virgil Sherwood: "Sure I do. You know lightning seldom strikes twice in one place."

Reginald Hardy: "Why did they call the Middle Ages the Dark Ages?"

Richard Baker: "Because the women kept their ages dark."

Reginald Hardy: "No, because there were so many knights."

Fifty years of service to the home, the school and the state

May Royse: "Do you like Juanita Ford?"

Lester Lilly: "No, she's dreadfully stupid."

May Royse: "Stupid? What makes you think so?"

Lester Lilly: "The other night when I was calling on her she exclaimed, 'Why, must you be going so soon?' And I give you my word I hadn't even mentioned such a thing."

Orson Burdick: "You talk about table manners. I don't believe you even know what a napkin is."

John Contois: "Yes, I do, too. It's a little sleep after eating."

Orson Burdick: "Who told you that?"

John Contois: "I guessed it myself. Manikin is a little man isn't it? So napkin must be a little nap."

Ralph Hertz: "When a man goes for a spin, what should he wear?"

Eloise McKinstry: "Oh, that's easy; a top coat."

Ralph Hertz: "And when he goes out in his automobile?"

Eloise McKinstry: "An accordion pleated skirt."

Ralph Hertz: "When a girl goes to a musicale, what should she wear?"

Eloise McKinstry: "An accordioin pleated skirt."

"Yes, I loved a girl once and she made a fool of me."

"Some girls do make a lasting impression, don't they?"

"What is an amateur actress?"

"One who has never been divorced."

"Do you really think ignorance is bliss?"

"Well, you seem to be happy."

Doctor: "Lady, your son has the measles in the worst form."

Mrs. Richely: "Why, Doctor, we are rich enough to afford the very best!"

Mr. Hungerford: "The farmers raise the grain; now what do the grain merchants do?"

Clarence Graves: "They raise the price—slowly."

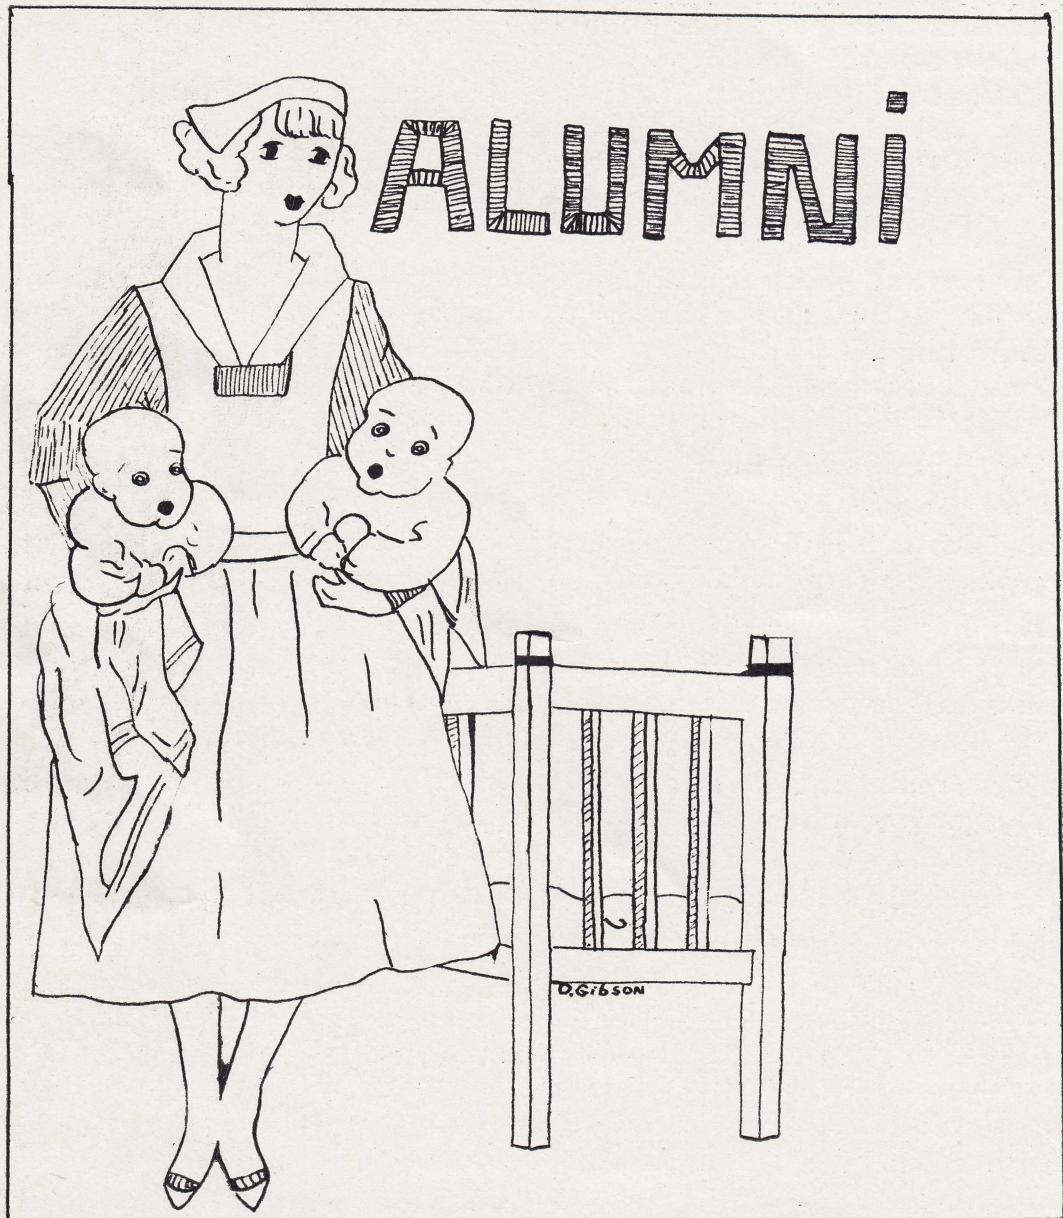

Mr. Beaupre: "Why did you put that mud turtle in your sister's bed?"

Henry Beaupre: "Because I couldn't find any frogs."

LETTERS FROM THE CLASS OF 1877

Mr. Irving Munson,
Momence, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Munson:

As a member of the class of 1877 I consider it a great honor to have the Year Book of 1927 dedicated to our, the first class to graduate from the Momence High School.

I am as proud to be an alumnus of the school as I was to be a graduate fifty years ago and as I was to be the mother of the first "grandchild" of the school in 1901 when my daughter received her diploma.

Hoping that your efforts to make the book a grand success are amply rewarded, I remain

Very truly yours,

MARY (HASLETT) BRADY.

Hoxie, Kansas, February 22, 1927

Supt. Irving Munson,
Momence, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Munson:

Your letter of recent date asking for a few lines from me for your Year Book brought to my mind pleasant memories of my school days at Momence. If I remember correctly there were seven members out of thirty in the Class of 1877 who graduated. They were: Sarah McKinstry, Ida Smithyman, Emma Griffin, Eva Griffin, Clara Thompson, Eton Haslett and myself. I have seen only one member of that class since graduating. That was Emma Griffin. Our principal was Prof. George H. White.

Perhaps a short sketch of how I've spent the intervening fifty years will be of interest to some. I taught school for a while, was married at Grant Park Illinois, to Charles H. Beers, of McHenry, a merchant and pharmacist. In 1886 we came to western Kansas where my husband established a general mercantile store, the first large store in Sheridan County, located at Hoxie, the county seat, where we still reside.

We're quite proud of our family of children. Our three daughters, Alice, Agnes and Eva, all graduated from the Sheridan County High School. Alice, the eldest, attended school at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin and married a Presbyterian minister. She died when quite young. Agnes took a three years' course at Salina, Kansas, and spent a year at the Mt. Ida Girls' School at Newton, a suburb of Boston, Massachusetts; Eva, the youngest, studied music at Lindsborg, afterwards married R. W. Samuelson a banker of Salina. Agnes married a dentist, H. J. Morrison, of Oberlin. They have two children, Aileen and Herbert. The latter is a student in the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. He is a member of the University male quartet, who occasionally broadcast from Hastings.

Our only son, Edwin, a soldier in the World War, attended the Kemper Military School at Booneville, Missouri. He gave his life for his country. He died from pneumonia, result of enfluenza contracted while in service.

My husband is still in business here, is one of the directors of the First National Bank. We have a nice, modern home and enjoy many luxuries of the modern times.

Of course the school at Momence has advanced with the years and kept progress with the times, but we like to close our eyes and vision it as it used to be. We like to think as Whittier said:

"Still sits the school house by the road,
A ragged beggar sunning;
Around it still the sumacs grow,
And blackberry vines are running."

Sincerely yours,

MRS. EVA C. J. BEERS.

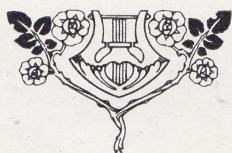

In my day—of fifty and more years ago—and under the leadership of Professor George H. White, just out of college, we thought that the Momence High School was “about as good as they make them” and that we had the best teacher in this part of the country. My two daughters are both graduates of Momence. Laura H., 1906 and Clennie B. (Schoenwald now) 1907. And I have a granddaughter—not yet six years—who is expecting to follow in her mother’s footsteps. Her father has promised her a wrist watch “when she gets into high school.

Shall try and attend the class reunion this year. I wish you all success, happiness and prosperity.

Yours very truly,

IDA SMITHYMAN LITTLE.

Los Angeles, Calif., March 17, 1927.

To Momence High School,

Class of 1927

Greetings:

Yours of recent date received and pleased to be remembered by Class of 1927.

How quickly 50 years have rolled around.

I lived 4½ miles northwest of Momence with my two sisters. We drove every day. I expected to have to drop out the last term but Prof. White urged father to let me finish with the class. I look now on it as quite an honor to be the only boy in the class.

I taught school two terms, then went to farming. In 1884 I was married and went to Dakota but soon returned to Chicago where I remained for some time. In 1893 I came to California. I was in Riverside for seven years. In 1900 we went to Long Beach, a town of 2,000 population now a city of 140,000. We had bought property in Long Beach and in 1907 traded for Monrovia, a beautiful foothill town. In 1912 we traded again for Long Beach still keeping some property in Monrovia as we expected later to make it our home. It is situated at the foot of Sierra Madre Mountains where you can see snow capped peaks part of the year which is close enough for me.

A year ago I lost my companion who had planned our home, where I now am trying to carry on.

Thanking the Class of 1927 for thinking of the Class of 1877, I am

Respectfully yours,

E. L. HASLETT.

Mr. Irving Munson,
Superintendent Momence Public Schools,
Momence, Illinois.

Dear Sir:

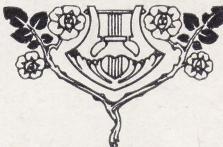

Yours of February 9 received and I can say I think it very nice of the editorial staff to so honor the Class of 1877 and I am sure they will greatly appreciate it.

I shall always have a kindly feeling toward Momence High School and the associations that go with it are among the most pleasant memories of my girlhood days, and some of the friendships I formed while there have lasted all these years. I think it really remarkable that after fifty years seven out of the eight who graduated are still alive.

I wish we might all meet again at the graduating exercises of the Class of '27 but of course that would be impossible. We are too widely separated and perhaps too old (though I must say I do not feel as old as fifty years after would indicate).

My best wishes to Momence High School and all that pertains to it and especially to the remainder of the Class of '77. Thank you.

MRS. SARAH KELLY (nee Sadie McKinstry)

Mount Vernon, Indiana, March 28, 1927.

Mr. Irving Munson:

Fifty years have made quite a change in Momence as well as in the school. Instead of three school buildings there was only one at that time, and only part of that finished. The high school was in the large room in the top story. There was a recitation room partitioned off the northeast corner. The next grade, called "A Grammar," went in the west room. Below were the other grades, "B Grammar, Intermediate and Primary." The rest of the building was not finished.

There was only one teacher in the high school in 1875 and 1876. That was the Superintendent G. H. White. The next year he had an assistant, Mr. Butterfield, during the winter term. There were I think, 84 pupils that winter in the high school. The pupils from the country usually came for the winter term only. The high school was small in the spring.

In the spring of '77 the "A Grammar" grade went into the high school room and our class went in their room. The Superintendent taught the rest of the high school in the A. M. and our class in the P. M. During the year we reviewed some studies and had some new ones. Among them was Zoology, Botany, what we then called Natural Philosophy, Geometry, Trigonometry, Comparative Zoology and some others. At that time we didn't study music, domestic science, agriculture, etc. It was said that year Momence had the best school in the county.

I hope the Class of 1927 have enjoyed their last year in school as much as our class did and that they will live till 1977.

Respectfully,

CLARA THOMPSON.

Auburndale, Florida, April 11, 1927.

Mr. Irving Munson,
Momence, Illinois.
Dear Sir:

Your letter received and with the other members of the Class of 1877 I wish to express to the Momence Community High School my appreciation of the first public honor—"the dedication of the Monesse 1927 to the Class of 1877"—conferred upon us as a class. I doubt if any of the class realized until recently that we were approaching the half century anniversary of the first Momence High School Commencement. It seems but a short time since we were striving to make the occasion a credit to the school and to the citizens who had made it possible.

Unlike today, we had to pay for our diplomas. No money we spent for decorations and only one of the girls had a new white dress for the occasion. Little did we think then that seven of the eight members of the class, and our teachers would be living to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of that commencement.

I went back to the school to teach and one of the greatest pleasures of my life now is the pleasant memories of those years of service, and tho I am not pensioned I am being well compensated by the beautiful letters of love and appreciation from those pupils who are now out on life's battle field trying by their experiences to make the world better and happier. I anticipate meeting many of them next June. May we ever strive for high ideals that the Momence High School may be a beacon light in the educational world.

Yours truly,

L. EMMA GRIFFIN.
